(U) Ukiah – Three Airlifted to Hospital after Suspected Lab Explosion in RV Park

(U) Authorities advised that a man and two children were seriously injured when a suspected honey oil lab created an explosion inside a trailer parked at Ukiah RV park. Though self-extinguished before authorities arrived on scene, the occupants of the trailer were observed to have significant burns and were helped out of the trailer by neighbors. All three were airlifted to hospitals out of the area for treatment. Authorities later reported that the explosion and fire is suspected to be the result of a honey oil lab, as officers observed numerous items at the scene that were consistent with materials used in the extraction of concentrated cannabis.

(U) Nigeria – Mass Prison Break as Hundreds of Inmates Escape

(U) Abuja – Nigerian authorities advised that at least 240 prisoners have escaped in a prison break in north central Kogi State after gunmen carried out a blitz attack on the facility. Officials stated that 294 inmates were in custody at the time of the attack. A large number of gunmen attacked from all angles killing a police officer and injuring another. No specific prisoners were targeted by the attackers. The jailbreak in Kogi comes five months after nearly 2000 inmates broke free from a prison in Imo State, after armed men invaded the custodial center and used explosives to blast parts of the prison.

(U) Indonesia – Authorities Arrest Key Leader in al-Qa'ida-linked Group

(U) Jakarta – Indonesia's elite counterterrorism squad arrested a convicted militant and suspected leader of an al-Qaida-linked group blamed for a string of past bombings in the country. Authorities seized the suspect near the capital of Jakarta, along with three other suspected members of Jemaah Islamiyah. The terror group is widely blamed for attacks in the Philippines and Indonesia, including the 2002 bombings in the Indonesian resort island of Bali that killed 202 people. Authorities described the arrest as part of a broader nationwide crackdown on the group, having swept up 53 alleged members of Jemaah in the past few weeks.
